A HISTORIC MYSTERY.

The National! Hotel 'Poisoning Twenty Years Ago.

Wartington Correspondence Chicago Times. A mong the more prominent of the Na-A mong the more prominent of the National's late arrivals are Senator Ben. Itill and wife, of Georgia. They occupy the suit of rooms known as the presidential parlors. If the walls had tongues they might discourse of people prominent in the past, and, perchance, tell tales of private life never suspicioned. But the tall mantel looks blank under its modern ornament, the brass mountings of the fender reflect new faces, the heavy curtains shut in the secrets never voiced, and in the room sits a little dark-eyed these Christians to a better and purer faith. A large sum was collected for the pious and benevolent enterprise, and some of the Brahmins declared their willingness to devote themselves to the work, and to spend and be spent in this humane and holy cause. Suradschi is now engaged in translating fitting passages from the Vedas into the English tongue for the use of the missionaries. and in the room sits a little, dark-eyed, prim woman, and a blue-eyed man "from away down South in Georgia," a man mild as May, velvety, and unassuming as a field dandelion. These rooms where Senator Hill now lives, on that fatal fourth of March, which witnessed Buchanai's interesting the secretary in the secretary was a second or the secretary with the secretary was a second or the secretary with the secretary was a second or secon anan's inauguration, were occupied by the new President. Twelve hundred guests were crowded in the house. In the evening nearly all were seized by similar symptoms of poisoning, and thirty or more died. The dead bodies lay in rows in the parlors, the sick and dying were moaning in the halls; a gloom hung over the city, and extended to distant homes, from whence had come to distant homes, from whence had come guests to witness the inauguration. The house had just previous to this been entirely refurnished. It was the grand hotel of the capital, and built in a style of magnificence rare in those times. The hotel poisoning is remembered with horror by old people, but many of the younger ones have never heard of it. The affair was investigated and the house examined. No positive clue has ever been found. Some said defective drainage, some poisoned rats in the wells, some that the sugar was poisoned to ruin the business of the hotel. It is generally, I think, believed now that the poison was mineral poison, and was in the sugar—for the reason that persons not stopping at the house, who took fancy drinks at the bar, were also seized by cramps. Doubtless the new President's death was Doubtless the new President's death was meditated, but Mr. Buchanan never touched sugar, nor ate it in anything, so that he almost alone escaped the peril. How to get Rich.—A practical farmer being asked what the farmers most needed to increase the value of their lands, crops and herds, replied: "They want just what the merchants, the manufactur-ers and the mechanics want, just what ers and the mechanics want, just what the railroad men, the lumber men, and the mining men want, they want labor, capital and brains. There is not a farmer in the State but will stand an application of this trio—work, money and thought." We asked him again, what simple and easy methods he would recommend to the farmers from which they could get the quickest returns, and he replied:

AUGUSTA, GEORGIA, Nov. 1, 1877.

MY customers know that I have heretofore led the "FURNITURE" trade of the South, in style, quality and prices. The time has come when these goods can be purchased as cheap from me as in the North and West. I do not go backwards, but continually raise the standard of my goods, and add new styles. I have made reductions in prices wherever possible, and spared no expense to place in your hands a Price List that will help you to purchase goods. I respectfully invite you to call and examine my stock and prices before purchasing elsewhere. Orders by mail will receive as much attention as it given in person. It would make the list too large to describe and copy all the different prices of Bedroom Parlor Suits, Dining Room, Office, Standing, Parlor and Ladies' Desks, Secretaries, Dwarf Libraries, and Book Clases, manufactured by me, and therefore, this list contains only a few of the prices of goods kept by me.

WATCHES!

ROMAINE GOLD, so extensively worn in Paris, was first discovered in 1870, by the celebrated French chemist, Mons. D. Be Lainge, who manufactured it into jewelry, and for five years sold it to the leading jewelers of Paris for SOLID GOLD. In 1875, when his secret became known, ten of the manufacturing jewelers extablished a stock company, with a capital of $10,000,000 for the purpose of manufacturing ROMAINE GOLD JEWELY AND WATCHES. With this immense capital, and the aid of improved machinery they are enabled to produce all the latest patterns of impossible even for experts to detect it from the genuine.

Sarsaparilla For Scrofula, and all

For Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Eruptions and Eruptive diseases of the skin, Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Blotches, Tumors, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald ter, Salt Rheum, Scald ead, Ringworm, Ulcer Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Pain in the Bones, Side and Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhea, arising from internal ulceration, and uterine from internal ulceration, and uterine disease, Syphilitic and Mercurial diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, General Debility, and for Purifying the Blood.

This Sarsaparilla is a combination of vegetable alteratives—Stillingia, Mandrake, Yellow Dock—with the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, and is the most efficacious medicine yet known for the diseases it is intended to cure. Its ingredients are so skilfully combined that the full alterative effect of each is assured, and while it is so mild as to be harmless even to children, it is still so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

The reputation it enjoys is derived from its cures, and the cr fidence which prominent physicians all over the country repose in it proves their experience of its usefulness. Certificates attesting its virtues have accumulated, and are constantly being received, and as many of these cases are publicly known, they furnish convincing evidence of the superiority of this Sarsaparilla over every other alterative medicine. So generally is its superiority to any other medicine known that we need do no more than to assure the public that the best qualities it has ever possessed are strictly maintained. PREPARED BY

IMPORTANT. To All Whom It may Concern:

I would urge upon those who have neglected to settle with me heretofore that they should do so now. The Notes and Accounts are now in my hands for collection, and I am authorized to pay the highest prices for all kinds of produce in settlement thereof. You have certainly delayed paying me long enough, and caused enough trouble already; and now, while you still have the privilege of making a fair settlement with me, come and do so, and you will avoid the trouble that will certainly result from any other course. The time is very short in which I can offer yo ny inducements.
